10. PRIVACY & SECURITY

Scarlet Alliance aim to uphold and protect the privacy of visitors to our website from external third parties or other companies. Scarlet Alliance would like to assure users of the site that their personal information gathered through this site will not be shared with external third parties or other companies. From time to time, we may wish to contact our users to follow-up on our services and/or to inform them of changes. At any time, you may choose to opt out of this arrangement either in writing to santap@scarletalliance.org.au by adding 'opt out' in the subject and detailing in the body that you would like to be removed. Scarlet Alliance will respect your request for privacy.

We would like our users to feel safe and comfortable during their visit to our website. If you feel any part of the site is a threat to your privacy or security, please don't hesitate to contact us with your concerns.

Scarlet Alliance takes every reasonable measure to keep our website and systems secure. As always, it is the user's responsibility to keep their password safe. It is also the responsibility of each user to choose a strong password that is difficult for a potential intruder to guess. Please note that if you choose to use the "remember me" feature of the login process, your username and password details will be stored in a cookie on your computer. This means that other users with access to your computer may be able to access your password, in addition to this, spyware and malware programs may search through your cookies to steal usernames and passwords. If you wish to use "remember me", we hope that you have taken reasonable measures to ensure the privacy and security of your own computer. Of course it is not a good idea to use this feature on a public access computer, such as those found in libraries or universities.
